Support Group

Personal wholeness

A Christ-centered healing and discipleship program

Cross-centered Support Group

At the centre of Personal Wholeness is the cross of Jesus Christ discovered in His community – the means through which we have access to the Father's love.

The cross is the place where we lay down our sins and wounds and receive the Holy Spirit.

At the cross, Personal Wholeness seeks to explore the dark and complex habits of the heart in order to impart the truthful, healing love of Jesus there.

What is Personal Wholeness?

Personal Wholeness is a course for those seeking to become more whole personally and relationally. You may be aware of a need for God's healing and freedom, feel 'stuck' in an area of your life, or be facing challenges or issues that never seem to go away. If so, this course is aimed to be of help to you.

Over 8 evenings (+ one Saturday), this course looks at the pursuit of personal wholeness in the context of an intimate friendship with the God who saves, heals and restores us in the area of relationships.

The course explores the brokenness that we can experience as a result of the way we were brought up, the values and ways of thinking & behaving that we experienced and that shaped us, and our relationships with our mother & father.

The effect of these relationships is a primary focus of this course.

Each evening consists of a time of worship, some teaching and then small group time (in safe, confidential, single-sex groups) where participants are encouraged to share and to receive prayer ministry.

Why a Support Group?

Groups are an extremely powerful tool for spiritual and emotional growth. A dynamic occurs in a group that is absent in one-on-one relationships.

Members realize the universality of pain and suffering, and they are not as tempted to condemn themselves further.
